

DISCOVER ORLÉANS - WHERE HISTORY MEETS THE LOIRE

Orléans is best explored on foot, through its historic streets, landmarks and lively squares. The city has a strong connection with Joan of Arc and with the Loire, which flows through it from east to west. From the riverfront, look up towards the towers of Sainte-Croix Cathedral; a short walk away, Place du Martroi and Hôtel Grosloot continue the story of Orléans.

Not to be missed

- Sainte-Croix Cathedral

Its twin towers are a striking landmark, visible from the riverfront and the old town.

- Hôtel Grosloot

Just a short walk from the cathedral, this historic mansion is well worth a visit.

- The Loire riverfront

Cross Pont George-V and enjoy a walk along the riverside on the south bank.
